

BLEICHERT

... moving ideas

has been acquired by

RWEISS
VERPACKUNGSTECHNIK

via an asset deal
out of insolvency proceedings by

EISNER RECHTSANWÄLTE

SynCap acted as M&A advisors to the insolvency administrator RA/FAInsR Dr. Helmut Eisner

SynCap, Clairfield's partner in Germany and Belgium, acted as M&A advisor to the insolvency administrator of Bleichert GmbH in Germany.

Bleichert GmbH was founded more than 100 years ago and operates globally as a system partner for innovative automation and conveyor systems. Specialty is the planning and construction of complete interlinking system for more than 100 clients in various industries such as Automotive, Truck and Powertrain, Subcontractor, Mechanical Engineering. The Headquarter with approx. 220 people is located in Osterburken, South Germany, as well as its assembly and administration department. A subsidiary with operating facilities is located in Sterling Heights, Michigan, USA, specialized in the design and manufacture of process conveyor systems, automation, assembly and interlinking systems for the North American market.

R. Weiss Group, is a leading producer of packing machines for cardboard packaging and products handling based on their modular "Toploading-System". With more than 200 employees they are located in Crailsheim in the south of Germany.

CLAIRFIELD PARTNERS

Europe
The Americas
Asia Pacific

November 2010