Non-food activities

were sold to

Clairfield International in The Netherlands (Boer & Croon) advised Shop Service Center.

Client overview

Shop Service Center is a Dutch distributor of non-food consumer products predominantly supplying petrol shops. Products include windshield wiper fluid and safety vests, as well as gifts and toys. The annual turnover of the non-food activities is approximately EUR 10 million. The company is also a wholesaler and distributor of e-vouchers which includes mobile phone products (call credit and SIM packages), gift cards (retail cards and experiences), tickets (amusement parks, events) and internet payment receipts.

Transaction overview

Shop Service Center B.V. sold its non-food activities to Nedac Sorbo B.V. in an asset deal. Nedac Sorbo is a Netherlands-based company that distributes non-food consumer products including cleaning products, household appliances, DIY, safety and audio/video products. Nedac Sorbo changed its name to Smartwares Home Essentials after the transaction.

The divestment of non-food activities enables Shop Service Center to further focus on expanding its prepaid business.
