

Joint venture between and

Nordic Forum

belonging to

Clairfield Partners in Poland (CET) acted as the exclusive financial advisor to Inter-Team's shareholders.

CLAIRFIELD PARTNERS

Europe
The Americas
Asia Pacific

2010

The Polish auto parts company InterTeam increased share capital, which was acquired by Nordic Forum (owned in turn by German group Hella).

Inter-Team is a leading distributor of automotive spare parts in Poland with annual sales of around EUR 70 million. The company operates through a network of 25 branches supplying IAM garages.

Nordic Forum is a dynamically developing group of companies specialising in distribution of spare parts covering countries such as Denmark, Norway, Finland, Russia, Ireland and Baltic states.

Nordic Forum is a business division of Hella Group, one of the biggest German companies with operations in over 30 countries. Hella is an automotive parts supplier that develops and manufactures components and systems for lighting technology for the automotive industry. Hella's consolidated revenue amounts to EUR 3.3 billion.

Clairfield Partners in Poland (CET) acted as an exclusive financial advisor to Inter-Team's shareholders in a transaction that resulted in a joint venture capital co-operation.