Germann Kunststofftechnik GmbH was sold to Johann Czotscher GmbH Kunststofftechnik. The transaction was an asset deal out of insolvency proceedings led by the law firm Beck Rechtsanwälte.

Germann Kunststofftechnik GmbH specializes in developing and producing plastic injection parts from prototype to development. The company was founded in 1996 and is based in Neuenstadt near Stuttgart. The company serves clients mainly from the automotive, supply, and engineering industry, including Audi, Porsche, ABN, Schubert, Faurecia, and Peguform. With more than 20 years of market presence, Germann Kunststofftechnik GmbH is well known for its innovative customized solutions and its high quality standards.

Johann Czotscher GmbH Kunststofftechnik, also a plastic molding company, is headquartered in Kronau north of Mannheim and runs four plants in Germany. The company was founded in 1973. With this acquisition Czotscher will increase its market share and extend its client base.

SynCap, Clairfield's partner in Germany and Belgium, acted as exclusive M&A advisor to the insolvency administrator of Germann Kunststofftechnik GmbH in Germany.
